【Skills, Personal Qualities】

Technique :	Dribbling, Footwork
Intelligence :	Off the Ball Movements

As a field player, it is possible to play in any position as the tactics of the team.

As for unique feature of play, I am particularly good at playing directly linked to the goal.

Besides that, I am not worried about adaptation within the team by communicating in Japanese, English and German.

In my past career, I have the experience of playing at the 2nd league in Japan and German league. Therefore, I believe that joining the team not only improves the team strength but also gives the team an attack improvement.
