【Skills, Personal Qualities】

Technique :	Dribbling, Footwork

As a field player, it is possible to play in any position as the tactics of the team.

As for unique feature of play, I am particularly good at playing directly linked to the goal.

Besides that, I am not worried about adaptation within the team by communicating in Japanese and English.

In my past career, I have the experience of playing at the 2nd league in Japan.

Therefore, I believe that joining the team not only improves the defense but also gives the team an attack improvement.
